[22] Objected to Culture of Honest Race Relations:

[22.1] They object to my cultural values of buck stops here honest race relations: honesty with black people about procreation above ecological carrying capacity limits causes of resource conflict; honesty with white people about consumption above ecological carrying capacity causes of resource conflict.

[23] Objected to Cultural Advocacy Exposing Masonic War is Peace Law as root cause of all resource conflict [eop-v-wip-law<sup>24</sup>]:

[23.1] They refused my legal strategic and/or tactical orders to inform the court of information and/or evidence in support of my cultural values to advocate on behalf of the strategic goal of exposing Masonic War is Peace law as root cause of all resource conflict, and implementing Ecology of Peace Scientific and Cultural law as international law.

EoP culture denied Voting Representation:

[29.1] In 1999 I filed a Submission to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission, promising to donate my inheritance to the TRC; in support of sincere – racial, religious, class and gender – land and/or economic inequality reform reconciliation in South Africa. The TRC responded in a brief form letter thanking me for my submission. If it is confirmed that there is no interest in sincere – Ecology of Peace – peacenik reconciliation between South Africans, I shall withdraw my submission to the TRC and use my inheritance funds for my Dignitas assisted suicide departure plans.

If so, my friend Jon Michael Dye, who helped Steve Biko leave South Africa, advice might be: Lara, Mandelaportia South African elite don't want a sincere peacenik in South Africa, they would prefer you fuck off out of South Africa. If so: I ain't got no problem leaving South Africa. If there are any Gunny Dye's around willing to help me to leave South Africa for my preferred departure from the planet assisted suicide in Russia preference; such help would be appreciated.

Oklahoma City Bombing Truth and Reconciliation:

[34] In May 2001, I wrote a letter to President Bush requesting President Bush to suspend Timothy McVeigh's execution pending OKC bombing Truth and Reconciliation, to facilitate honest forgiveness and truth-seeking problem solving related to the US domestic and foreign policy causes of the OKC bombing. If the OKC TRC proceedings did not grant Timothy McVeigh amnesty, they would choose to sentence Timothy McVeigh and myself to death.

[35] 07 Oct – Dec 2001: Timothy McVeigh's Oklahoma City bombing commanding officer: Timothy McVeigh's execution was faked: Sometime on the morning of 07 October or between 6 and 17 December 2001 – the initial meeting occurred during media reports about the bombing of Tora Bora in Afghanistan – I accidentally met US Special Forces Native American – Seminole tribe – soldier Michael Martin – not his real name, which I do not know – at the Westridge park Flying J Truckers Parking lot – Flying J #611, at 6700 Latham St, on the corner of Papago Freeway and N 67th Avenue – in Phoenix Arizona. We traveled together for the day and spent the night at the Geronimo Motel in Flagstaff, discussing among others the OKC bombing, then returned to Phoenix the next day. Michael Martin informed me that Timothy McVeigh's execution had been faked, and he knew this, because he had personally run into Timothy – who had been partially disguised – at a homeless shelter, in the week of 4th of July 2001, a few weeks after Timothy's alleged execution. Initially we decided we would travel to various militia compounds where Michael thought McVeigh could be found, or who would know where we could find McVeigh. However, my funds were low, and I had to be back in California for a court date, and so we agreed that Michael would go back to Washington DC to speak with his Pentagon superiors to ascertain their level of interest if any for the disclosure of Oklahoma City bombing events via Truth and Reconciliation proceedings, and I would return to the Bay Area. A few weeks later Michael Martin returned to the Bay Area from DC, where I picked him up at the

San Francisco bus station, where I got a parking ticket waiting for his bus to arrive. He stated his Pentagon superiors did not object to his enquiry whether the OKC bombing events could be disclosed via Truth and Reconciliation proceedings, but they did say that it would open a can of worms that went directly back to the John F Kennedy Assassination, and they did not know whether American citizens really want to know the truth about what is done for them in their name.

[36] Upon returning to California I went to CA Governor Gray Davis office where I proceeded to inform Steve West, Former US Special Forces and then Secret Service Officer in the office of Governor Gray Davis of Michael Martin's information regarding the faked execution of Timothy McVeigh. Mr. West doubted my assertions but I refused to leave the office unless he promised to request Governor Gray Davis to ask President Bush to confirm or deny the information. A few weeks later, I returned and Steve West confirmed that his previous conclusions about the execution of Timothy James McVeigh had been incorrect. Governor Gray Davis had requested President George Bush to confirm or deny Michael Martin's information about McVeigh's faked execution, and President Bush had confirmed it; when he met President Bush at their recent meeting in San Bernadino County. Consequently he confirmed for me that Timothy McVeigh had not been executed on 11 June 2001; his execution was faked. Mr. West then thanked me for informing Governor's Davis office of this information for him to verify with President George W Bush.

[37] All my EoP TRC to End Abel and Kane Cold War negotiations legal applications and correspondence since 2002 has been – a result of my OKC Bomb TRC offer – and an effort to cooperate with US Pentagon officials to ascertain the level of American and international support for such Ecology of Peace Truth and Reconciliation to End to the Cold War.<sup>34</sup>

[38] On 30 Oct 2018, I submitted informal EoP TRC application to Judge Timothy Tymkovich, a Federal Judge on the 10th Circuit court, CC: US Supreme Court Judges; re: ongoing OKC bomb Truth and Reconciliation efforts: EoP Re: 10th Circuit Court: John Roberts v Brett Kavanaugh & US v Tim McVeigh<sup>35</sup>. The submission concludes that: "If or when it is determined by FSB Gen Bortnikov and NSA: Gen Nakasone that there are insufficient EoP cooperating 2% elite: EoP Applicants consent to Gen Nakasone to release Tim McVeigh [us-v-tjm.tygae.org.za] to travel to South Africa and to Russia with EoP MILED Clerk for their joint assisted suicide in Siberia."

[39.1] A sincere peacenik is someone committed to (a) ego literate (i) scientific truthseeking enquiry; and (ii) advocacy on behalf of; (b) eliminating the root causes of all local, national and international racial, religious, class and gender resource conflict.

[40] Ecology of Peace culture sincere peacenik: truthseeking enquiry and advocacy consists of:

[40.2] EoP Scientific and Cultural law [eop-scicultlaw<sup>38</sup>] – based on EoP Footprint [eop-footprint<sup>39</sup>] – is the Ecology of Peace culture's answer to the EoP John Brown<sup>40</sup> – how to get along without deceiving, overbreeding and overconsuming – Question: What is a Sustainable Procreation and Consumption footprint?

[40.3] Ego Literacy [ego-eco-literacy<sup>41</sup>]: Ecology of Peace culture's honourable truthseeking enquiry and advocacy communication policy.

[41] None of the respondents accepted my invitation to negotiation and/or mediation of the suggested sincere peacenik legal definition. None have signed the suggested sincere peacenik Ecology of Peace policy statement [eop-policy-stmnt<sup>42</sup>].

[41.1] Draft: Ecology of Peace Policy Statement:

CULTURAL LAW SELF RULE

[cult-law-self-rule<sup>1</sup>]

[1] Cultural law refers to any racial, religious, ideological, sexual or gender cultural value agreed upon, and codified in a written agreement between two or more individuals, which does not violate any EoP Scientific [eop-sciicultlaw<sup>2</sup>] – procreation and/or consumption below ecological carrying capacity [eop-footprint<sup>3</sup>] – laws; enabling a greater degree of cooperation and mutual assistance support between such individuals.

[2] Individuals Rights and Duties under Cultural Law include: Cultural Law Territorial Self Rule for Groups with Subjective Racial, Religious & Gender Culture-Conflict Identities.

[3] Violations of Cultural Law would fall under Deception Crimes of Aggression: Violations of Fully Informed Consent.

[4] Conflict of Cultural Law Violations: Violations of Cultural Law between two individuals or groups of individuals with different Cultural Laws, would be adjudicated in terms of Crimes of Aggression [crimes-of-aggression<sup>4</sup>]: Violations of Fully Informed Consent.

Cultural Law Territorial Self Rule for Groups with Subjective Racial, Religious & Gender Culture-Conflict Identities:

[5] Any group of individuals who have signed their Responsible Freedom Oaths to abide by Ecology of Peace Scientific and Cultural Law who share similar racial, religious, socio-ideological, sexual or gender identity, may agree to form a Cultural Law Self Rule community homeland, which can be as small as an agreement between two people, a family or village within a nation; or as large as a continental territory including a few nations; where the individuals within that territory have provided their fully informed consent to practicing a particular group shared ‘Cultural Law’.

[6] As long as the particular 'cultural law' is based on the fully informed consent of all individuals within the particular 'cultural law' homeland community; and the 'cultural law' is practiced within the confines of the particular cultural law homeland community's territory; it is lawful; irrespective of how offensive it may be to the cultural values of a neighbouring homeland with different racial, religious, class, gender groups cultural law agreement values.

[7] Any groups cultural law is lawful within that cultural law homeland community's territory; and cannot be legally restricted or punished by a different group of individuals who have different subjective racial, religious or gender cultural laws, within their cultural law homeland territory.

[8] There is no restriction whatsoever on the choice of any groups fully informed consenting 'cultural law'; as long as it (a) does not violate EoP Scientific procreation and consumption laws; and (b) is based upon fully informed consent of all individuals within the privacy territory of the individuals 'self rule cultural law homeland'. For example: Armin Meiwes and Bernd Brandes fully informed consent cannibalism<sup>5</sup>, etc.

Cultural Law Homeland Rights and Duties:

[9] Cultural law homeland rights will only apply to individuals or groups of individuals objectively and subjectively abiding by EoP Scientific laws:

[10] If or where a homeland agrees on a cultural law that restricts travel across their property ration homeland to individuals who are not members of their cultural law homeland agreement; they should clearly and simply notify neighbour property ration territories, and include a 'Whites / Blacks / Sharia Muslims / Jews Only Homeland' public notice at roads entering their homeland; where clear and simple definitions of 'whites, blacks, sharia muslims, jews' are provided.

[11] Ultimately as property swaps enable individuals with similar 'cultural law homeland' values to find property rations on the outskirts of existing homelands; enabling them to join a particular homeland, different homelands can create nature corridors between their homelands to protect their cultural values and minimize relating friction with homeland neighbours who have conflicting racial, religious, gender etc cultural law values.

[1] EoP Footprint: Sustainable procreation and consumption footprint<sup>2</sup>.

[2] The EoP Footprint [eop-footprint<sup>3</sup>] is the Ecology of Peace culture's answer to the EoP John Brown – how to get along without overbreeding / consuming / deceiving – Question: What is a Sustainable Procreation and Consumption footprint?

[2.1] Ecological Carrying Capacity Limits:

[A] A Sustainable society practices Sustainable Procreation and Sustainable Natural Resource Utilization Behaviour; i.e. all of its citizens consume and procreate below carrying capacity. Sustainable Natural Resource Utilization behaviour involves the utilization of renewable natural resources—water, cropland, pastureland, forests, and wildlife—exclusively, which can be depleted only at levels less than or equal to the levels at which they are replenished by Nature. The utilization of non-renewable natural resources (NNR's)—fossil fuels, metals, and minerals—at any level, is not sustainable<sup>4</sup>.

[2.2] Carrying Capacity Sustainability: I=PAT Equation:

[A] For activities to be genuinely sustainable it must be possible for them to continue indefinitely. The impact of humanity on the environment and the demands that people place on the resources available on the planet can be summarised by what is known as the Ehrlich or IPAT equation, I=PAT. I = impact on the environment or demand for resources, P = population size, A = affluence and T = technology. The two most important conclusions deriving from this IPAT footprint<sup>5</sup> relationship are

<sup>5</sup> EcoFootprint: The difference between the biocapacity and Ecological Footprint of a region or country. A biocapacity deficit occurs when the Footprint of a population exceeds the biocapacity of the area available to that population. If there is a regional or national biocapacity deficit, it means that the region is importing biocapacity through trade or liquidating regional ecological assets. Global biocapacity deficit cannot be compensated through trade, and is overshoot.

that: (i) the Earth can support only a limited number of people, at a certain level of affluence, in a sustainable manner; and (ii) Population and Consumption must be reduced to below EoP Footprint carrying capacity.

[2.3] Carrying Capacity aka Biocapacity Limits:

[A] The maximum number of individuals that can be supported sustainably by a given environment is known as its 'carrying capacity'. Worldwide the total amount of biologically productive land and sea amounts to 12 billion global hectares (gha); or 1.8 gha each if divided by 6.7 billion each. In accordance with the proactive conservation policies of Bhutan<sup>6</sup> and recommendations by The Global Deal for Nature<sup>7</sup>, EoP Footprint sets aside 60% of biologically productive land to be returned to its natural state, for other species and wildlife conservation purposes. That means that the total amount of biologically productive carrying capacity land available to humans is 40% of 12 billion; which amounts to 4.8 billion gha total; or 40% of 1.8 gha, which is 0.72 gha each.

[B] Population factor is relevant, because the more humans there are, the less biologically productive land there is for everyone else. For example: Biocapacity limits of 6.7, 3.5, 1 Billion, 500, 250 & 100 Million: 4.8 billion global hectares of biologically productive land and water divided by (a) 6.7 billion humans, equals: 0.71 gha each; (b) 3.5 billion equals 1.37 gha each; (c) 1 billion equals 4.8 gha each; (d) 500 million equals 9.6 gha each; (e) 250 million equals 19.2 gha; (f) 100 million equals 48 gha each.

[2.4] Procreation Factor:

[A] As noted, the more people there are; the less biologically productive land there is available for everyone else. According to the research of Paul Murtaugh, the procreation factor that should be added by ecology

<sup>6</sup> Bhutan Proactive Conservation: Bhutan is seen as a model for proactive conservation initiatives. The Kingdom has received international acclaim for its commitment to the maintenance of its biodiversity. This is reflected in the decision to maintain at least sixty percent of the land area under forest cover, to designate more than 40% of its territory as national parks, reserves and other protected areas, and most recently to identify a further nine percent of land area as biodiversity corridors linking the protected areas. Environmental conservation has been placed at the core of the nation's development strategy, the middle path. It is not treated as a sector but rather as a set of concerns that must be mainstreamed in Bhutan's overall approach to development planning and to be buttressed by the force of law. – "Parks of Bhutan". footprint organisations to their Consumption footprint calculators, is 20 per child. [Each Child increases a parent's cumulative consumption footprint by factor of 20<sup>8</sup>]

[2.5] Difference between Sustainable Responsible Freedom citizen v Unsustainable Crime of Aggression Scarcity Combatant:

[A] An individual's IPAT footprint is a result of: (A) Consumption Footprint multiplied by (B) Procreation Factor (Every child increases 20 Child Factor). If their IPAT footprint is below carrying capacity limits, they are an Eco-Innocent Leaver; if their IPAT footprint is above carrying capacity limits, they are a Taker Crime of Aggression Scarcity Combatant.

[2.6] Total Footprint = Consumption x Procreation Factor.

[A] EoP SciCult law will designate a particular footprint calculator – presumably Global Footprint Network<sup>9</sup> (copy available at Earth Day<sup>10</sup>) or Center for Sustainable Economy<sup>11</sup> – as the temporary official EoP SciCult law global standard footprint calculator, pending completion of EoP Footprint calculator database.

- a. To work out your Consumption footprint; you will use the Consumption Footprint calculator. See more at Global Footprint's Application Standards<sup>16</sup>, where they detail how their calculators calculate Consumption footprints. The quiz will ask you various questions about your consumption habits, and provide you with a final consumption footprint in global hectares which is your 'consumption footprint'. For the purposes of this calculation; avoid footprint calculator quizzes that do not provide you with your final global consumption footprint amount, such as for example: World Wildlife

[B] Multiply your consumption footprint gha amount by your Procreation Factor: factor of 0.5 for zero children; factor of 20 for each child, one child: 20, two children: 40, three children: 60 and so on.. The total amount is your Total Footprint.

- a. For example: Applicants Consumption Footprint using Sustainable Economy's Myfootprint.org quiz, was 12.75<sup>19</sup> global hectares (gha) [now 15.13<sup>20</sup>, presumably due to increased population since original quiz was taken]. She has no children, consequently her procreation factor is 0.5. Consumption (12.75) x Procreation (0.5) = Total Eco Footprint of between 6.375 gha.

[3] Although there are a very large number of interpretations of the world; there are unbelievably severe constraints; on the number of functional interpretations there are in the world:

[4] The postmodernists were actually wrestling with quite a difficult problem. The founders of postmodernism were by no means unintelligent and they actually put their finger on quite an important problem. The important problem that they put their finger on was the fact that any set of phenomena has a near infinite number of potential interpretations. That actually happens to be the case. That fact, let's say, was discovered simultaneously in a number of different disciplines ... One of the disciplines was artificial intelligence ... It was much more difficult to make a machine that could perceive the world, than it had originally been supposed. .. Part of the reason for the lack of artificial intelligence robots back in the 60's was that the artificial intelligence researchers, when they were starting to instantiate perception into their machines, learned that charting your course in the world might be a trivial problem, in comparison to determining how to perceive the world, and the reason for that is that there is a very large number of ways to perceive the world. The postmodernists actually cottoned on to this, and the claims they made was that there is a near infinite number of ways to interpret any given text; and that actually also happens to be the case. Then they said, well if there is a near infinite number of ways to interpret any text, how do you know if any given interpretation should take precedence over any other interpretation, which is also a perfectly reasonable issue. .... The error in postmodernism is the failure to recognize that there are a finite number of credible interpretations of phenomena; and also a refusal to engage with the intellectual problem to determine to engage to find out what the finite number may actually consist of. I will give you a brief overview of how we happened to solve this problem as human beings. We do it partly biologically because we inhabit a biological framework that's been developed over the course of about 3.5 million years; that severely constrains the manner in which we interpret the world. It constrains it such that we only tend to spontaneously manifest interpretations of the world that don't result in undue suffering and our demise. There is plenty of ways to be stupid enough to perish and there are plenty of ways to be stupid enough to suffer without meaning; but there aren't very many ways to live properly and carefully for a long period of time; in a manner that doesn't also simultaneously do harm to other people. So that is the second set of constraints. You have biological constraints on your perception and they are built in, as a consequence of the Darwinian process; and the second part is that you are forced to interact with yourself now in this week, next week, and the month after. So you have to conduct yourself in a way that doesn't interfere with your future life as you are living now. And simultaneously you have to conduct yourself in a way that makes all the people around you want to cooperate with you and compete with you; and maintain the relationship with you and do that today, and next week and next month. So although there are a very large number of interpretations of the world; there are unbelievably severe constraints; on the number of functional interpretations there are in the world. And one of the things that the humanities was supposed to be educating the people with regards towards understanding was: what the universe of those finite functional interpretations might be; and that has been more or less abandoned by the universities; under the values of postmodernism. – Jordan Peterson: Postmodern NeoMarxism: Diagnosis and Cure<sup>11</sup>.

Definition: Culture / Religion: Frame of Orientation:

[5] Erich Fromm: To Have or to Be: A Culture/Religion is a Group-Shared System of Thought and Action that Offers the Individual a Frame of Orientation and an Object of Devotion:

[5.1] “To clarify, “religion” as I use it here does not refer to a system that has necessarily to do with a concept of God or with idols or even to a system perceived as religion, but to any group-shared system of thought and action that offers the individual a frame of orientation and an object of devotion. Indeed, in this broad sense of the world no culture of the past or present, and it seems no culture in the future, can be considered as not having religion. This definition does not tell us anything about its specific content. People may worship animals, trees, idols of gold or stone, an invisible god, a saintly person, or a diabolical leader; they may worship their ancestors, their nation, their class or party, money or success. Their religion may be conducive to the development of destructiveness or of love, of domination or of solidarity; it may further their power of reason or paralyze it. .. A specific religion, provided it is effective in motivating conduct, is not a sum total of doctrines and beliefs; it is rooted in a specific character structure of the individual and, inasmuch as it is the religion of a group, in the social character. Thus, our religious attitude may be considered an aspect of our character structure, for we are what we are devoted to, and what we are devoted to is what motivates our conduct. Often however, individuals are not even aware of the real objects of their personal devotion and mistake their “official” beliefs for their real, though secret religion. If, for instance, a man worships power while professing a religion of love, the religion of power is his secret religion, while his so-called official religion, for example Christianity, is only an ideology.”

refining the consumption footprint calculator, to be accurate for all eco-regions<sup>8</sup>; as part of the legal evidentiary truthseeking process. Each eco-region's footprint will determine the size of a responsible freedom citizen in that eco-regions property ration [property-ration<sup>9</sup>]. For example: All nations will have a Consumption Footprint database, and there shall be an international consumption global footprint database. The national footprint database will include consumption footprint info for all the different eco-regions in that nation; adjusted to the global eco-footprint average property ration: 7.2 gha at a population of 1 billion, or 72 gha at population of 100 million as per suggested EoP Scientific: eco-footprint carrying capacity international law.

[6] Example: Advocacy in violation of Consumption/Procreation Limits:

[7] Jeremy heard Richard advocating on behalf of overconsumption/population. Jeremy informs Richard that advocating on behalf of overconsumption/population is illegal, and advises Richard to withdraw his advocacy on behalf of overconsumption/population and apologize. Richard (a) agrees that he was negligently advocating on behalf of overconsumption/population, and apologizes; or (b) disagrees that he was advocating on behalf of overconsumption/population; and so Jeremy and Richard go to civil court. The court finds Richard (i) innocent; Jeremy apologizes to Richard for his sincere but incorrect overconsumption/population interpretation; (ii) negligently guilty: Richard is required to go to ego & eco-literacy [ego-eco-literacy.tygae.org.za] consumption/procreation classes to learn about what kind of behaviours are overconsumption/procreation behaviours; (iii) intentionally guilty of consumption crimes of aggression [crimes-of-aggression.tygae.org.za]: the penalty for which is honourable death: Richard is allowed to remove his gene's from the genepool by means of her preferred assisted suicide preference, by a date as decided by the sentencing judge. If not done, Richard is humanely – i.e. quick death – assassinated.

Any individual convicted of intentional procreation crime of aggression will be allowed to remove their gene's from the genepool by means of their preferred assisted suicide preference, by a date as decided by the sentencing judge. If not done, they will be humanely – i.e. quick death – assassinated.

[10] Example: Engaging in physical violation of Consumption Limits:

[11] Julian is accused by Thomas of overconsumption in London, UK. Julian and Thomas go to the London library to input Julian's consumption footprint data into the library's consumption footprint calculator database. Julian and Thomas still disagree about the accuracy of their input data or the output results; and so they decide to go to London Footprint court. Julian and Thomas provide the Clerk of the Court with Julian consumption data; a Footprint police investigator checks it for accuracy; and the consumption data is submitted into the Court footprint calculator. Julian is found (a) innocent; Thomas apologizes in writing for his sincere but mistaken allegation and goes to a consumption footprint course to learn to accurately measure consumption footprint inputs; (b) negligently guilty: Julian apologizes in writing and goes to a consumption footprint course to learn to accurately measure consumption footprint inputs; (c) negligently and/or intentionally guilty: Julian disputes (i) the accuracy of one or more consumption factors measured in the Footprint calculator's sustainability accuracy; and/or (ii) the finding of his deliberate intentional violation: so the matter goes to court for Julian to provide the court with his evidence in support of the IPAT calculators factors inaccuracy; and/or mitigation of deliberate intentional violation. If the Judge considers some of Julian's evidence indicating that particular consumption factors for the eco-region are inaccurate to be reasonable; the Judge can make a recommendation to footprint database scientists to investigate Julian's evidence; or if the Judge finds Julians evidence scientifically accurate, to order the footprint database scientists to correct the particular footprint factor error in the database. If Julian is found intentionally guilty of consumption crimes of aggression [crimes-of-aggression.tygae.org.za]: the penalty for which is honourable death: Julian is allowed to remove his gene's from the genepool by means of her preferred assisted suicide preference, by a date as decided by the sentencing judge. If not done, Richard is humanely – i.e. quick death – assassinated.

[12] Example: Overconsumption/Procreation/Deception:

[13] Similarly the crimes of aggression death penalty will be applicable for individuals in cases where: (i) if Jeremy, Richard, Julian or Thomas are found to have engaged in deliberate and/or malicious inaccurate data input statements to the Clerk; (ii) any Footprint Calculator scientists are found guilty of intentionally including inaccurate footprint data, or (iii) citizens found guilty of engaging in irregular methods to enter inaccurate footprint calculator data; (iv) citizens found guilty of breeding more than one child, or hiding information from the state about one child only breeding cheating.

- [2.4] If the child is the mother and father's second child, both of whom are convicted of intentional procreation crimes of aggression, the child is humanely executed.

Excerpts: Jason Brent: A Proposal: How to Determine Who can and who cannot reproduce:

[3] No one has the right to use his penis or her womb to destroy all of humanity. Every individual has the right to one and only one child. One child law is value neutral and does not favor or harm any individual or group of individuals, and will be applied to every person or group without favoring anyone. The action is very simple—limit the right of any male to father only one live child and limit the right of every woman to one live birth. In simple terms a couple is limited to one and only one child—not one child for the male and one child for the female.

[4] One Child law would be applied to every single human being without regard to race, religion, national origin or anything else and it would be absolute, no exceptions. It would be applied without regard for wealth, or the lack of wealth, and it would be applied without regard for the country of birth or residence of either the male or female. It would be applied without regard to intelligence, or the lack thereof, and without regard of the ability of the male or female to function in society. The right to either father a child or for a female to give birth could not be sold or transferred; it would be personal to the individual. If a live child were born with a birth defect or with some other disability it would not permit either the father or mother to produce another child. Each couple would have the right to have all appropriate pre-natal tests to determine if the child in the womb would be born with a birth or genetic defect and if the chance existed that the child would be born with such a defect to have an abortion.

[5] Since survival of our species depends on the one child rule, under my proposal any attempt to evade the rule would result in death of the evader and of any second child. The rule to be fair must be absolute, without a single exception. If the female cannot or refuses to provide the name of the father she and the child shall be immediately executed. All of the ideas set forth in this paragraph may be considered horrible and inhumane. However, since they will be applied equally, no individual or group is harmed except to the extent that an individual cannot either father or give birth to a second child. The harm caused to the individual and the harm caused to all of humanity by enforcing the one child rule set forth above is miniscule compared to the harm which all of humanity would suffer if population were not reduced.

[6] Since the birth of a child is very hard to hide, there must be communal responsibility and accountability for any attempt to do so. Those who knowingly failed to report the birth of a second or any higher number of children would themselves be subject to the very same severe punishment that would be meted out to the parents of the second or higher numbered child—no religious, cultural or ethnic exemptions would obtain. Humanity cannot consider the evasion of the single child rule a game to be played with a minor penalty, if caught. No group or individual could be permitted any evasion of the one child rule that would lead to a disparity among groups and among individuals causing irreparable harm to the entire system established to reduce population. Should this sanction seem barbaric or draconian, it is surely less draconian in its effects than the merciless verdict of nature upon a species that refuses to contain its expansion.

[7] In order for this proposal to be fair, equitable and workable, society and governments would be required to take action today to provide the means for every human being to control his or her fertility, to give everyone on the face of the earth the ability to limit birth to a single child. Governments would be required to devote a whatever portion of their Gross Domestic Product is necessary to the provision of artificial birth control devices of any and all types including sterilization, at low or no cost as appropriate, to their citizens, no matter the age of the citizens once a citizen reaches the age he/she can physically reproduce. This would also include instruction as how to use the devices. This would also include education of both males and females that the birth of a second child would result in the execution of the father and mother as well as the child. Governments would be required to provide safe, as much as any medical procedure can be safe, and low cost or free access to abortion. If any person, either male or female, had more than two failures of birth control devices, it would be conclusively presumed that the person was unable to use birth control devices and the person would be physically and permanently sterilized.

[8] If poor nations were unable to devote the necessary funds to accomplish the one child rule in five years, the rich nations of the world would be required to assist the poor nations, after an evaluation that the poor nations were doing the best they could under some reasonable standard. Since survival of our species depends on reducing population below the current 6.7 billion humans now alive, the necessary funds to establish the system to control population must be made available. It should be emphasized that a “One-Child-Per-Family” (OCPF) law that is almost completely effective will not suffice. It must be totally and universally effective. After a five year preparation period, the rule must be enforced. The reduction in population would continue under the one child rule until all of humanity agreed upon the method and criteria necessary to implement the two group solution described herein. Population would continue to be reduced pursuant to the method and criteria of the two group solution until it reached 300 million or some other lower number agreed upon by humanity. The number finally agreed upon would be based on the ability of the earth to provide resources for humanity to maintain an acceptable standard of living for a minimum of 25,000 years. And 25,000 years is infinitely small when compared to the 160 million years the dinosaurs ruled the earth.

[9] No doubt any proposal that would recommend capital punishment for transgressors of the One-Child-Per-Family law presently evokes immediate revulsion and rejection. Outside the context of an imminent die-off, given our heritage of moral, religious and cultural programming, I would be surprised if it didn't. Reality has a way of effecting abrupt ethical changes. What is not presently comprehended by almost all of humanity is that we are now in an emergency. Our species is on the brink of an unparalleled catastrophe—our destruction and the destruction of our civilization. It is a matter of complete indifference to me that many, if not all, readers will find the execution of anyone having a second child to be horrible and against every moral precept they learned or understood was applicable to humanity. The problem is not that my prescriptions are immoral or horrible. Rather the problem is that the situation humanity finds itself in is horrible. Each individual will have a very clear choice—birth control or sterilization or abortion or abstinence or execution.

Summary of Transition to EoP Next Economy:

[1] Community Solution: Power of Community: How Cuba Survived Peak Oil<sup>2</sup>: The breakup of the Soviet Union in the 1990's created a major economic crisis in Cuba known as the special period. So we have from 1982 to 1983 a freefall of the economy of 34% of GDP, gross domestic product. When I tell you freefall of the economy, try to imagine an aeroplane suddenly lose their engines. It was really a crash. Cuba lost 80% of its export and import markets. Oil imports dropped by more than half, buses stopped running, factories closed, electricity blackouts were common and food was scarce. People almost starved. In reality when this all began urban gardening was a necessity. People had to start cultivating vegetables wherever they could. Over the next decade Cuba took drastic steps to find solutions. It is the first country to face the crisis that we will all face, the peak oil crisis.

[2] Industrial Economy Powerdown: Next Economy: Transition from Globalization to Eco-localism<sup>3</sup>: Energy: Rolling blackouts as coal / nuclear plants are progressively shut down. Agriculture: Conversion to soil regenerative low tech organic, permaculture, urban gardens; composting of manure and dead animals & humans; rewilding and reforestation of nature corridors. Transport: Animal drawn transport, bicycles, sailboats and walking. Trade: For emergency products only. Science and schooling: Education concentrates on practical ego/eco literacy cooperative soil low tech sustainable agrarian economy survival skills.

[3] EoP Axis Nationalization of Individuals Property:

[3.1] All individuals owning property greater than the EoP allotted eco-footprint [eop-footprint<sup>4</sup>] ration will have their property, in excess of the property ration nationalized.
